

Wholesale Broadband is a commercial solution for all wholesale customers that allows purchase of stand-alone (data only, no voice) High Speed Internet transport and Internet Service Provider (ISP) solutions at compelling, volume-based wholesale rates for resale to your business & residential end-users.

Boost business efficiency

Move forward with business broadband to ensure a reliable and fast connection. Uninterrupted transfer of data and communication is essential to your business.

Consistency is key

Improve business operations by increasing bandwidth that suits your business. Gain faster internet speeds with a consistent broadband connection with a cost-effective solution.

Local Support Teams

Local support teams and technicians in the field that know you and your business.

Features and Benefits

- Incredibly competitive, volume-driven discounts
- Stand Alone Broadband service delivers a data line only option
- Wholesale broadband requires no volume commitment and discounts improve based on your tier growth
- Our network offers fast speeds at compelling rates in rapidly growing, geographically diverse market areas without the cost of buying or building field facilities.
- Wholesale broadband is the solution for users looking to reduce their monthly telecom spend while maintaining broadband access on dedicated facilities

Solutions for Wholesale customers could include:

- Internet access
- Corporate LAN access
- Telecommuting
- Desktop videoconferencing
- Computer-Telephony integration
- Distance learning
- Always-on applications